

Lake Macquarie Cruise

September 20-21 2025

Come and join us for the first sailing cruise for this season-

Launching at Styles Point ready for a 10:30am sail off.

Sailing wherever the wind takes us.

Be prepared to cook on your boat if we don't end up near a club/pub.

Expecting glorious spring weather.

- As Brian and I are now retired we are hoping to launch possibly Thursday because we now can and possibly stay longer dependant on weather!
- However, the cruise itself wont start until Saturday for those who are unfortunate enough to have to work 😊
